Your participation is the Key to River Hills' success . . .

Volunteering Club members are an integral part of the success and enjoyment of our Club. Through the efforts of volunteers we maintain and improve our lodge, publish our "Skizette" newsletter, chair committees and coordinate Club activities and events, including ski trips and parties.

It would be helpful if you would share your interests, skills and talents with the Club. It's important for you to seek out your own volunteer opportunities. Please identify which of the following categories would be of interest to you.
